‘Ecosystems’: A Genocidal Fraud

At the orders of Prince Philip and the British Crown, a whole array of institutions including the Australian government; the lying hacks in the Murray-Darling Basin Authority (MDBA); and the entire Green Fascism movement in Australia centred in Philip’s Australian Conservation Foundation, is in full mobilisation to shut down the Murray-Darling Basin, one of the greatest agricultural miracles in the world.

This attack on Australia’s premier food bowl continues the decades-long green onslaught on Australia’s industries and infrastructure: most of the nation’s independent and eminently “sustainable” forestry industry has fallen victim to Green Fascism; vast swathes of productive agricultural land have been locked down as national parks and nature preserves; suffocating restrictions on vegetation clearing and pest control hamper food production on working agricultural lands. Green Fascism has increasingly blocked Australia’s infrastructure development: since the Franklin Dam case in 1983, most major dam projects have been shelved, and the green fanatics parading as scientists at the CSIRO have recently ruled out developing Northern Australia as a food bowl on the ludicrous grounds that it doesn’t have enough water, after first outrightly rejecting the building of dams! Green Fascism is driving Julia Gillard’s Carbon Tax, the wind and solar power scams, and on and on.

In the case of the Murray-Darling food bowl, Prince Philip’s Green Fascists will thus destroy the livelihoods, and even the very lives, of untold thousands of Basin residents. The MDBA itself has admitted that suicides will soar (as they have), and that entire towns will shut down and disappear forever; moreover, so will the food supply for most of the 60 million human beings whom the Basin presently feeds.

All of the “science” used to justify shutting down the Basin, indeed all tenets of environmentalism, rest upon a single concept: that of the “ecosystem”. But now, a remarkable new film from the BBC, amplified by additional research by the Citizens Electoral Council, proves the notion of “ecosystems” to have been a witting lie from the outset, when it was first concocted in 1935 by the notorious British imperialist and eugenicist Sir Arthur Tansley. Virtually the entire modern science of “ecology”, along with its Green Fascist “environmentalist” shock troops, rests upon that singular fraud.

Do you want to see the indisputable proof for that assertion? Then watch the DVD announced on the reverse side of this flyer, The plot to shut down the Murray-Darling food bowl: ‘Ecosystems’ A Genocidal Fraud. By exercising the cognitive powers of your own mind while viewing it, you yourself will come to know for certain, and will be able to explain to anyone else, exactly why and how this “ecosystem” concept is a British imperial fraud; how it was cooked up for the sole purpose of mass population reduction—as indeed will happen in the Basin and among the 60 million other human beings who currently depend upon its production.

If you thought “global warming” was a lying scam, you ain’t seen nothing yet. Go home and watch this DVD right away—your life, and the future of Australia, depends upon it.
