Pussy Rot!

The media storm around the Russian punk rock protest group Pussy Riot is a new front in Britain's disinformation campaign against Russia. Oxford University's Project Democracy is remote-controlling the Pussy Riot circus in Russia, to foment public anarchy in Russia aimed at destroying the main obstacle to Britain's drive to expunge the principle of national sovereignty from international relations—Vladimir Putin.

Pussy Riot is operating straight from the irregular warfare playbook of Oxford's Gene Sharp, The Politics of Non-violent Action, which among its "198 Methods of Non-violent Action" are: #27—New signs and names; #30—Rude gestures, #32—Taunting officials, #161—Non-violent harassment, #178—Guerrilla theater.

Here are the facts:

The band flagrantly desecrated the area of the church containing the sacred icons where only the priests are allowed, cavorting, gyrating and singing (screaming) loudly to the Virgin Mary to rid Russia of Putin.

The band broke an existing law against hooliganism, which law mandates three years jail, or seven years if by an organised group; the prosecutor asked for three, their hated target Vladimir Putin urged leniency because they are young, and the judge imposed two, minus double the five months already served, so an effective sentence of 14 months.

Putin noted that they were fortunate they committed their act in Moscow, and not in a synagogue in Israel or in a mosque in the North Caucasus, where they wouldn't have made it to jail.

Members of the band previously belonged to Voyna, which specialises in flash mobs of public group sex, and simulating sex acts of bestiality with stuffed bears and frozen chickens in public places, including in front of children.

In a copy-cat protest, a member of the Femen protest group which specialises in topless protests used a chainsaw to cut down a church cross in Ukraine, which commemorated victims of political oppression in the 1930s.

In another copy-cat act, Pussy Riot allies pulled a similar stunt in a cathedral in Cologne in Germany, and face three years in jail under German law—a nation nobody accuses of being a dictatorship.

Vladimir Putin put an end to the genocidal looting of the post-communist Russian economy by British financial interests (the same interests directing the Kennett privatisation spree in Victoria at the time), under which Russia's death rate soared—for that, he has enormous support among everyday Russians, and institutions such as the church. He is standing in the way of any British-orchestrated attack on Syria and Iran, his opposition grounded firmly on the principle of national sovereignty, which the British since Tony Blair have been determined to shred. China, also fiercely defensive of national sovereignty, is backing Putin all the way—both nations have warned that any attack on their sovereignty will lead to the use of nuclear weapons.

If the British and their stooge Obama attack Syria and Iran as proxies for their targeting of Russia and China, they will push the world into a thermonuclear showdown. The intention of the Pussy Riot propaganda attack on Putin, is to soften up western populations so that we accept without question when once again our leaders commit us to war. However, within seconds of a nuclear exchange, we won't have time to ask questions.

If you support the principle that nations have the right to genuine sovereignty, join the global fight against the British-Obama war drive by joining the CEC and distributing copies of the June-July 2012 New Citizen newspaper<sup>4</sup>, "British Crown's End-Game: Financial Crash and Nuclear War".

RESOLUTION

The Future of Australia: Develop or Die

Whereas:

The presently ruling policies of globalisation, privatisation, deregulation and free trade, together with the enforcement of “environmentalist” policies so radical that they are best described as “green fascism”, are plunging the vast majority of Australians—along with most of the rest of the world—into poverty and misery; destroying our once-great nation; and eliminating any meaningful future for our children,

Be it therefore resolved:

- 1) That the entire body of “globalist” economic reforms introduced by the Hawke-Keating régimes beginning 1983 and relentlessly extended since then, be scrapped, together with all the equally-murderous, radical environmentalist legislation enacted since that time;
- 2) That this nation return to the traditional protectionist, well-regulated form of agro-industrial economy under which we once flourished, typified by the agreement in outlook between “old Labor” as exemplified by ALP prime ministers John Curtin and Ben Chifley, on the one hand, and Country Party leader and longtime Trade and Industries Minister John “Black Jack” McEwen, on the other;
- 3) That we must re-regulate our national financial system upon two essential pillars:
  - a) the immediate separation of sound commercial banking which benefits the average Australian, from the speculative merchant banking activities which have grown like a cancer under financial deregulation, both in this country and worldwide and which have largely caused the present, ever-deepening global financial crisis; the well-known precedent for such a separation is the 1933 U.S. Glass-Steagall Act, which President Franklin Delano Roosevelt used to bring his nation and the world out of the Great Depression, and whose adoption is presently being debated in numerous countries around the world;
  - b) the immediate re-establishment of a new, government-owned national bank to provide credit for urgently needed great infrastructure projects as the engine to drive a great new renaissance in our agro-industrial, physical economy; we must have a sovereign Australian national credit system, not a London/Wall Street-controlled monetarist system, to enable us to secure the well-being of all Australians instead of just the privileged few, as under the present, monetarist system.
- 4) That we, the undersigned, will exert our utmost efforts to bring these reforms into reality, NOW!
