France terror latest consequence of cover-up of Saudi role in 9/11

The global wave of terrorism that has now struck France is a direct consequence of the ongoing cover-up by US and UK governments of the Saudi Royals' involvement in financing terrorism.

This is the expert analysis of former US Senator Bob Graham, who co-chaired the Joint Congressional Inquiry into the 11 September 2001 terrorist attacks.

US President Barack Obama has refused to fulfil his 2008 election promise to declassify the 28 pages of the report of that inquiry, which deal with the Saudi financing of the 9/11 hijackers. The pages were originally suppressed by George W. Bush and Dick Cheney in 2002, to protect leading Saudi Royals known to be named therein, such as former Saudi ambassador to the US Prince Bandar bin-Sultan, who is an intimate friend of both the Bush family in the US and Prince Charles in the UK; in fact, Prince Bandar is nicknamed Bandar Bush.

On 7 January, a few hours after the Charlie Hebdo killings, Bob Graham addressed a scheduled press conference in Washington, calling for Obama to declassify the pages. It was convened by Republican Congressmen Walter Jones, Democratic Congressman Stephen Lynch, members of the families of 9/11 victims and by Senator Graham to demand the declassification of the infamous "28 pages redacted from that Joint Inquiry report which prove that the Saudi government organized 9/11", a point on which Senator Graham was particularly forceful.

Please go online to view a 9 January LaRouche-PAC webcast featuring excerpts of the press conference and analysis by EIR magazine's Intelligence Director Jeff Steinberg.*

Among other things, Steinberg recapped the Al-Yamamah arms-for-oil deal struck by 9/11 financier Prince Bandar with Margaret Thatcher in 1985, which has served until this day as an international slush fund to finance terrorism. Tony Blair shut down a British Serious Fraud Office investigation of that deal on the grounds of "national security"—the same pretext invoked by President George W. Bush and now Barack Obama in their refusal to release the 28 pages.

In his remarks at the press conference Senator Graham charged that the ongoing suppression of the 28 pages is enabling the wave of terrorism that has become increasingly frequent since 9/11. "There is a threat to national security by non-disclosure, and we saw another chapter of that today in Paris," Graham declared. He elaborated:

Prince Charles' Saudi mates fund ISIS 'death cult'

www.cecaust.com.au

"What would you think the Saudis' position would be, if they knew what they had done, they knew that the United States knew what they had done, and they also observed that the United States had taken a position of either passivity, or actual hostility to letting those facts be known? What would the Saudi government do in that circumstance, which is precisely where they have been, for more than a decade?

"Well, one, they have continued, maybe accelerated their support for one of the most extreme forms of Islam, Wahhabism, throughout the world, particularly in the Middle East. And second, they have supported their religious fervor, with financial and other forms of support, of the institutions which were going to carry out those extreme forms of Islam. Those institutions have included mosques, madrassas, and military. Al-Qaeda was a creature of Saudi Arabia; the regional groups such as al-Shabaab have been largely creatures of Saudi Arabia; and now, ISIS is the latest creature!"

There is no single individual with more intimate personal and financial connections to the leading Saudi individuals sponsoring terrorism than Prince Charles, as the CEC has documented in the November-December 2014 New Citizen newspaper. Unless the US moves ahead to declassify the 28 pages, and unless Prince Charles' connections to the leading Saudi sponsors of terror are exposed, major new terror attacks in the near future are virtually guaranteed. The day after the Charlie Hebdo killings MI5 head Andrew Parker confidently forecast mass casualty attacks in the UK.

Back in September the CEC also forecast the likelihood of such terrorist attacks, in a release published in the latest New Citizen newspaper headlined "British SIS/ASIO Planning a Terrorist Attack on Australia?" However, the CEC's release exposes the role of the intelligence agencies such as Parker's MI5, its sister MI6 and their Australian branch ASIO—which answer directly to the Crown—in orchestrating terrorist attacks that terrify the public into accepting wars and fascist police state laws.

Join the CEC's fight to expose the Saudi-British nexus behind the global wave of terrorism.

The system is collapsing: Australia, UK Must Join BRICS in New Economic Order

15 November 2014. The world now stands at a branching point, unprecedented in the history of the human race. This issue of the New Citizen presents you, citizens of Australia or the United Kingdom, with the essential you need to know, to choose one road or the other.

The first road, now being trod under the policies of the British Crown and its agencies in the City of London, Wall Street, the European Union, the IMF and World Bank, and related institutions, will eventually lead, in the months ahead, to the greatest financial crash in history, and a likely thermo-nuclear war against Russia and China, with the extinction of the human race. Over the last year, Russian and Chinese leaders, in particular have repeatedly, clearly warned that the West stands to initiate such a deadly war, its opening salvoes are the Anglo-American "Asia Pivot" against China, and the relentless march of a war-getting NATO to the borders of Russia (Fig. 1, p. 2), including by the installation of a neo-Nazi-infused regime in Ukraine.<sup>1</sup>

The second pathway is one shared by the BRICS group (Brazil, Russia, India, China, South Africa, and their allies). It opens up a radically different vista: a new, just world economic order of sovereign nation states, collaborating to ensure the Common Good of all of their citizens. Such cooperation will replace the London/Wall Street "financial" special-lobbying system, ending government "bail-outs" and "special-lobbying" of "Too Big to Fail" banks (p. 13), but its benefits are immediate and SIS to great chaos worldwide (p. 4) and justify the fact-only police states at home, and step-by-step world war.

Schiller Institute founder Helga Zepp-LaRouche provides an overview of the two contending pathways (p. 6). For four decades, she and her husband, American economist Lyndon LaRouche, have been leaders in the struggle for protection by such a new, just world order as now being pioneered by the BRICS.<sup>2</sup> The triumph of this alternative will ensure the greatest economic and cultural renaissance in world history, allowing, among other things, mankind to soon take up its rightful destiny among the stars.

The policies and intentions of China, the leading protagonist of the BRICS alliance, have been the subject of an avalanche of lies in the Western media. As you review the evidence of the ancient nation's stunning progress over recent decades (p. 10), you will understand I prefer the China-led BRICS vision of the future, or the continued plunge into Hell and probable thermonuclear war, led by the Anglo-American imperialists and their pathetic tools, such as Abbott, Cameron and Obama?<sup>3</sup>

istics of these two contending systems as we present them here—essentials which you almost certainly have read nowhere else—then you personally, must act to ensure that your Substituting a parallel economic order with giant steps (p. 6). President Putin (Russia), PM Modi (India), and Presidents Poutouff (Brazil), Xi (China), and Zuma (South Africa) (l to r)—of the countries whose initials give the BRICS group its name—meet Nov. 15 in Brasilia, Fortaleza/Brazil.
